Make plans to join us for California’s foremost tax conference, the 2019 Annual Meeting of the California Tax Bar and California Tax Policy Conference! Satisfy your annual MCLE requirements in beautiful sunny San Diego while networking with key tax officials, fellow tax practitioners, colleagues and friends.

The Conference features two and a half energy-packed days with an agenda of 34 educational courses and numerous networking opportunities tailored to attorneys, CPAs, corporate tax executives, financial planners, enrolled agents, government tax officials, legislators and staff, and law students.

As part of the California Tax Policy Conference, we are pleased to present distinguished speakers, including: Jozel Brunett, Chief Counsel, Franchise Tax Board; Kristen Kane, Chief Counsel, Office of Tax Appeals; Henry Nanjo, Chief Counsel, California State Board of Equalization; and Robert Tucker, Acting Chief Counsel, California Department of Tax and Fee Administration. In addition, we will have over 60 lawyers from the state’s tax agencies and legislature—including division leaders and key tax counsel—actively participating in the Conference.

As part of the Annual Meeting, featured speakers include Keynote Speaker Michael J. Desmond, Chief Counsel of the Internal Revenue Service and Assistant General Counsel in the Department of the Treasury, Charles P. Rettig, Commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service, Hon. L. Paige Marvel, Hon. Mary Ann Cohen, Hon. Daniel A. Guy, Jr., Judges, United States Tax Court; Kathryn A. Meyer, Area Counsel (SB/SE Division), Joanna L. Trebat, Office of Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service, Income Tax & Accounting, Wendy Kribell, Office of Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service; and Jarod Koopman, Director of Cyber Crime, Internal Revenue Service, Criminal Investigation, IRS.

Expert panels cover the latest developments in key areas of State and Local Tax, selected topics under the 2017 Federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, International Taxation, Partnership and Corporate Taxation, Estate and Gift Tax, Tax Procedure and Litigation, and important updates regarding tax legislation and tax policy.

The Conference also features a number of networking events, including:

- Opening Night Reception—Meet the speakers and federal and state government attendees;
- Reception and activities hosted by the Young Tax Lawyers – All are welcome;
- Wednesday Afternoon Tax Directors Panel! — Industry representatives will discuss the tax issues impacting their companies;
- Thursday evening Toast to Women in Tax;
- Dinner with entertainment by renowned comedian Al Lubel; and
- Sponsored late night event – Casino Night.

We look forward to seeing you at the 2019 Annual Meeting of the California Tax Bar and California Tax Policy Conference in sunny San Diego!

COURSE #5  1.00 Hour MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
SCOTUS Has Spoken on State Fiduciary Income Tax: What Are Its Implications and Where Do We Go From Here? - E&G
In light of the Paula Trust case and the Kimberly Rice Kaestner 1992 Family Trust case out of North Carolina, where the Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) addressed state fiduciary income taxation for the first time, this issue is becoming a hot topic. Unfortunately, the opinion provides little guidance and many interpret it as very narrow. The panel will focus on both national and California-specific cases and current considerations when dealing with these issues.

Speakers:
• Wendy Abkin, Partner, Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP
• Chris Campbell, Principal, Deloitte Tax LLP
• Chris Parker, Senior Manager, Moss Adams LLP
• Sonia Woodruff, Tax Counsel IV, Franchise Tax Board

9:40 A.M. – 10:40 A.M.
COURSE #8  1.00 Hour MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
Intangible Rhapsody: Current Developments in Property Tax - SALT
It has been five years since the Supreme Court weighed in on the taxation of intangibles when determining assessable values. Yet, the issue keeps popping up in cases across the state. Join our panelists as they discuss this issue, as well as the latest trends and developments in the area of property taxation.

Speakers:
• Greg Broege, Partner, Ajalat, Polley, Ayoob & Matarese
• Richard Moon, Tax Counsel IV, California State Board of Equalization
• Troy Van Dongen, Partner, McDermott Will & Emery
COURSE #9 1.00 Hour MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
Confronting Wild Things: Lifting the Lid on Section 199A - TP&L
The Final regulations for 199A are lengthy and complicated. This panel will take a deep dive into this new code section by analyzing the examples in the Final Regs.

Speakers:
- Laura L. Buckley, Partner, Higgs Fletcher & Mack LLP
- Wendy Kribell, Office of Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service
- Layton L. Pace, Attorney at Law

COURSE #10 1.00 Hour MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
Best Audit Practices: The Taxman Cometh so Make Your Audit Hummeth - SALT
Audits can be long and strenuous for taxpayers. Focusing on both the Franchise Tax Board and the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration, this panel will discuss how to minimize the stress and uncertainty that comes with an audit. The panelists will discuss communications with tax agencies, handling information and documentation requests, setting a record for the future, and other tips for handling FTB and CDTFA audits.

Speakers:
- Trista Gonzalez, Chief, Tax Policy Division, California Department of Tax and Fee Administration
- William Gorrod, Of Counsel, Morrison & Foerster LLP
- Rick Sanchez, Assistant Director, Franchise Tax Board
- Shirley Wei, Senior Manager, Deloitte Tax LLP

COURSE #11 1.00 Hour MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
Estate Planning and Community Property - E&G
In 1999, Jerry Kasner prepared an outline entitled “Community Property and Estate Planning,” which has been a critical resource for countless California attorneys. Using an updated version of Jerry’s piece, the speaker will review notable developments in California community property law in the last twenty years, since this outline was prepared. The presentation will have a specific emphasis on community property issues affecting estate planning practice and what every practitioner should and needs to know.

Speaker:
- Andrea Kushner, Director, Bernstein Private Wealth Management

COURSE #12 1.00 Hour MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
Back by Popular Demand: Tax Court Roundtable - TP&L
The Conference brings back the always popular and informative discussion with United States Tax Court Judges.

Speakers:
- Hon. Mary Ann Cohen, Judge, U.S. Tax Court
- Hon. Daniel A. Guy, Jr., Judge, U.S. Tax Court
- Hon. L. Paige Marvel, Judge, U.S. Tax Court

COURSE #13 1.00 Hour MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
A Ways from Wayfair: Economic Nexus in 2019 - SALT
Our panel of experts will discuss state trends in economic nexus since the Wayfair decision, including the implications of these trends for businesses and the effect on income taxes and gross receipts taxes.

Speakers:
- Adam Beckerink, Partner, Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP
- Randy Ferris, Executive Director, Ernst & Young LLP
- Bradley Heller, Tax Counsel IV, California Department of Tax and Fee Administration
- Alisa Pinarbasi, Tax Counsel, Franchise Tax Board
- Shirley Sicilian, Partner, KPMG LLP

12:00 P.M. – 1:30 P.M.
EVENT #37
Federal Awards Luncheon & Keynote Speaker
This luncheon showcases the presentation of the prestigious V. Judson Klein Award to Carl Joseph, Partner, Ernst & Young LLP; and the distinguished Joanne M. Garvey Award to Robin Klomparens, Partner, Wagner Kirkman Blaine Klomparens & Youmans LLP. The luncheon program will feature a keynote address by Michael J. Desmond, Chief Counsel of the Internal Revenue Service and Assistant General Counsel in the Department of the Treasury.

THUR, Nov. 7

1:45 P.M. – 3:15 P.M.

COURSE #14 1.50 Hours MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
Transfer Tax Controversies in Estate and Gift Tax Cases - E&G
The Tax Court, government counsel, a private practitioner, and an appraiser will discuss their views and perspectives on valuation and other disputed transfer tax issues. The panel will cover recent litigation topics in Appeals and Tax Court, such as defined value formulas and what everyone should learn from the most recent valuation case decisions. Due to the number of recent cases involving family entities in the estate and gift tax realm, the panel will also focus on those updates, as well as provide their thoughts in light of the new decisions.
Speakers:
- Thomas Berg, Partner, Deloitte Transactions and Business Analytics
- Hon. Mary Ann Cohen, Judge, U.S. Tax Court (Invited)
- John Prokey, Partner, Ramsbacher Prokey Leonard LLP

COURSE #15 1.50 Hours MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
The Quest for QSBS - TP&L
Qualified Small Business Stock (QSBS) law provides big benefits for owners of businesses of all shapes and sizes. Under section 1202, multiple shareholders can receive a 100% exclusion from gain on sale and a tax-free rollover of gains. This panel will discuss planning opportunities (including estate planning which could allow for the use of the exclusion multiple times over), potential pitfalls, and unanswered questions in search of QSBS benefits.
Speakers:
- Andrea Kushner, Director, Bernstein Private Wealth Management
- Allen B. Walburn, Partner, Higgs Fletcher & Mack LLP

3:45 P.M. – 5:00 P.M.

COURSE #16 1.50 Hours MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
The OTA: Here Come the Judges! - SALT
It’s time for our annual check-in with the Office of Tax Appeals (OTA)! It’s been an eventful year, with the publication of over 200 decisions, many of which have been designated precedential. This distinguished panel, comprised of the OTA and private practitioners, will provide updates on OTA’s evolving regulations, new legislation that will impact the agency, and recent decisions of interest. The panel will provide perspectives on their experiences working with the agency and will offer a look into what is on the horizon for OTA in the coming year.
Speakers:
- Myriam Bouaziz, Deputy Director of Legislation, Office of Tax Appeals
- Linda Cheng, Los Angeles Presiding Administrative Law Judge, Office of Tax Appeals
- Sara Hosey, Administrative Law Judge, Office of Tax Appeals
- Shail Shah, Partner, Reed Smith LLP

COURSE #17 1.25 Hours MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
Alimony, Prenuptial Agreements and Trusts Under the 2017 Tax Act and What Every Practitioner Should Know About the Tax Impacts - E&G
While estate planners do not handle divorces, clients often turn to them for support and understanding the tax implications can be helpful to every estate planner. Whether it is dependency exemptions, transfers of securities, the family home or retirement plans, spousal support or tax attributes such as loss carryforwards, there are essential tax tips that can assist every practitioner. And, the income tax impact of divorce, in 2019 and beyond, will have far-reaching effects as a result of the elimination of alimony as an income/deduction item and the post-divorce continued grantor trust status of certain spousal trusts. The speaker will provide advisors with a nuts and bolts check list that will allow any planner to at least understand the key issues now and in the future.
Speaker:
- George Karibjanian, Member, Franklin Karibjanian & Law PLLC
COURSE #18  1.25 Hours MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
What’s So Territorial about the TCJA? - TP&L
While the Tax Cut and Jobs Act (TCJA) allows corporations a deduction for certain dividends received from foreign subsidiaries, it expands taxation of income earned by CFCs. Further, the new FDII regime, includes a preferential tax rate for domestic corporations selling, licensing or leasing property to foreign markets. These changes directly affect domestic corporations and closely held companies with operations abroad, as well as foreign investors coming to the United States.

Speakers:
- Justin G. Crouse, Associate, McDermott Will & Emery LLP
- Paul DiSangro, Partner, Mayer Brown
- Steven Hadjilogiou, Partner, McDermott Will & Emery LLP

COURSE #19  1.25 Hours MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
Creditopia: An Update on California’s Tax Credits and Incentives - SALT
Both government and businesses continue to see economic development as a means to incentivize new investment in California, which has led to California having a robust economic development framework of credits and incentives. This panel will explore some of the dynamic credits and incentives that are available to businesses and individuals in California who are investing in new employees, equipment and locations, or expanding at a current location. The panel will discuss the mechanics of claiming California credits and incentives, along with documentation and audit considerations. From income tax credits to sales tax exclusions, there are a broad range of credits and incentives available.

Speakers:
- Tom Bertino, Senior Manager, KPMG LLP
- Scott Dosick, Assistant Deputy Director, California Governor’s Office of Business & Economic Development
- Drew Hemmings, Partner, Baker McKenzie
- Amanda Jacobs, Tax Counsel III, California Department of Tax and Fee Administration
- Jason Riley, Tax Counsel IV, Franchise Tax Board

5:30 P.M. – 6:30 P.M.

EVENT #40
A Toast to Women in Tax
The Leadership Path: How Does Gender Shape a Woman’s Path to Leadership?
Both men and women must acquire the requisite skills and support to attain a prominent role in the tax profession. However, women seeking influential legal positions may need to overcome conscious and unconscious bias, while attempting to master the characteristics of a successful leader and develop a network to guide them along their way. The speakers will discuss their experiences in developing the legal knowledge, skills and sponsorship required to position themselves as leaders in the tax profession and how those experiences were, or were not, unique as a result of their gender. All conference attendees are welcome to attend the Toast!

Moderator:
- Betty Williams, Managing Shareholder, Law Offices of Williams & Associates P.C.

Speakers:
- Hon. Mary Ann Cohen, Judge, United States Tax Court
- Kristen Kane, Chief Counsel, Office of Tax Appeals
- Greenberg Traurig Morgan Lewis

COURSE #20

1.25 Hours MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law

Everything You Need to Know About Judicial Construction but were Afraid to Ask - E&G

The presentation will walk the audience through the hidden minefield when dealing with the rules of construction. What do we do when there is an ambiguous document or maybe it is simply void? Learn when extrinsic evidence can be introduced and used. But, most importantly, learn the to-do’s and not-to-do’s and how to avoid unexpected tax issues.

Speaker:
- Tara Morris, Trust Fiduciary Executive, National Office of Chief Fiduciary for Bank of America Private Bank

COURSE #21

1.25 Hours MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law

From ITIN’s to Expatriation - TP&L

This panel will look at some of the issues non-U.S. citizens face with respect to U.S. taxes. It will examine the basics of employing immigrants, filing issues for undocumented clients, different types of visas and their impact on ability to work and the resulting tax issues, as well as advising U.S. citizens who are considering either expatriation or renouncing U.S. citizenship.

Speakers:
- Pedro Corona de la Fuente, Partner, Procopio, Cory, Hargreaves & Savitch LLP
- Carlos Santos, Partner, Hutchinson and Bloodgood LLP
- Tianlin (Laura) Shi, Office of Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service, Attorney, International, Branch 1

COURSE #22

1.25 Hours MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law

Playing Catch Up: The 2019 Legislative Update - SALT

There has been a flurry as California works on legislation to implement, improve, and respond to federal tax reform on top of an already robust legislative agenda. Legislative tax committee staff and other tax policy professionals will review this year’s legislation, including partnership audit rules, qualified business income under section 199A and more. Panelists will address pending and anticipated California legislative proposals and other states’ legislative policy differences.

Speakers:
- Colin Grinnell, Staff Director, Senate Committee on Governance and Finance
- Shane Hofeling, Assistant Chief Counsel, Franchise Tax Board
- Michele Linton, Chief, Legislative Bureau, California Department of Tax and Fee Administration
- Annette Nellen, Director, MST Program, San Jose State University
- M. David Ruff, Chief Consultant, Assembly Committee on Revenue & Taxation Director

COURSE #31 1.00 Hour MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
Certiorari Granted: Essential SALT Litigation in 2019 - SALT
It’s been an eventful year! In 2019, California joined in filing amici curiae briefs in two significant cases before the U.S. Supreme Court in Taggart v. Lorenzen and North California Dept. of Revenue v. Kaestner, Arizona sought leave from the U.S. Supreme Court to file a complaint against California, and we are looking forward to our annual Hyatt update. The panelists will discuss the Franchise Tax Board (FTB) and California Department of Tax and Fee Administration (CDTFA) cases that should be on your radar, and provide their thoughts on how these cases will influence State tax policy in the future.

Speakers:
- Jeffrey Friedman, Partner, Eversheds Sutherland LLP

COURSE #32 1.50 Hours MCLE, Legal Specialization in Taxation Law
What Every Estate Planner Needs to Know About International Tax and Reporting, and the Government’s Enforcement and Initiatives - E&G
As our economy becomes more and more global, practitioners are forced to at least be able to spot the critical issues when dealing with foreign assets. It is no longer a matter if the government will find an offshore asset; it is when. This diverse panel will discuss international compliance issues that will allow proper reporting, how to handle the client who has failed to report and what the options are.

Speakers:
- Caroline Ciraulo, Partner, Kostelanetz & Fink, LLP
- Wayne Johnson, Wayne R. Johnson and Associates, PLC
- Kurt Kawafuchi, Law Offices of Kurt Kawafuchi
- Victor Song, Victor Song Consulting
Virtual Currency has become more popular for taxpayers and merchants as a means to transfer money locally (or internationally) almost instantly. The Internal Revenue Service treats virtual currency as property for tax purposes and no tax jurisdiction has recognized the non-tangible asset as currency. The Department of Justice’s Tax Division and the IRS Criminal Investigation Division have enforcement programs for those who may be using cryptocurrency for money laundering or other illegal purposes. Learn what all practitioners need to know regarding the tax treatment of cryptocurrency transactions, and current enforcement efforts to thwart criminal activity.

Speakers:
- Nathan Hochman, Partner, Browne George Ross LLP
- Jarod Koopman, Director of Cyber Crime, Internal Revenue Service, Criminal Investigation
- Betty J. Williams, Managing Shareholder, Law Office of Williams & Associates, P.C.

Epic Tales from the Chief Counsel Roundtable - SALT
The Chief Counsels of the Franchise Tax Board, the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration, the Board of Equalization, and the Office of Tax Appeals will share administrative and policy updates from their respective agencies. Join this much anticipated session to hear about the past year and what is on the horizon from the Chiefs themselves.

Speakers:
- Jozel Brunett, Chief Counsel, Franchise Tax Board
- Kristen Kane, Chief Counsel, Office of Tax Appeals
- Charles Moll, Partner, McDermott Will & Emery
- Henry Nanjo, Chief Counsel, California State Board of Equalization
- Robert Tucker, Acting Chief Counsel, California Department of Tax and Fee Administration
