The program will provide a total of 12 hours MCLE credit, including at least 6 hours of Legal Specialization in Family Law. The symposium will satisfy the annual 8-hour training requirement of Rule 5.242 of the California Rules of Court. Those attorneys needing to satisfy the 12-hour initial training requirement will be able to attend a morning session on February 8 to obtain the additional 4 hours.

For those of you who have previously not attended the San Luis Obispo County Training, past comments and reviews have included the following:

- ★ "I was on the Elkins Taskforce and the way you are training minor's counsel to be lawyers who use evidence to advance their client's best interest is exactly what we had in mind with the changes. So, thank you!"
- ★ "I have attended other conferences for minor's counsel and this one is the crown jewel of conferences. Excellent speakers, topics and materials. Thank you!!!"
- ★ "Amazing seminar! Great, informative and enjoyable speakers. Couldn't have picked a better location. And extremely well organized."
- ★ "Thank you so much for putting this training course on at the Central Coast. It is, by far, the best training I have been to."
